

A Place of Healing and Renewal for
Over 100
Years

Annual Report
2002

*Message from the Board Chairperson
and President/CEO*

Dear Members and Friends,

The past year has brought great success and many blessings for the YWCA during what can only be described as very challenging times. Despite national crises and local recession, our community continued to see the tremendous value the YWCA brings to those in need and committed itself to ensuring that those turning to us for help would continue to find it here. The YWCA's audit showed, once again, exemplary financial stewardship. And with an eye to our future, the membership of the YWCA's Heritage Society continued to grow, adding the names of those who have made estate gift arrangements to eventually benefit the YWCA and those it serves.

The YWCA has been blessed with a wonderfully rich history on which we often pause to reflect, particularly during such difficult times. Over the last 102 years, this organization has witnessed tragedy – world wars, economic depression, atrocities against humanity – and great achievement – advances in the rights of women and minorities, local collaboration to more effectively deal with the issues that tear at the very fabric of our community, the individual triumphs of those seeking our support. Through it all, the YWCA has sustained and in fact, thrived. Since the very beginning the YWCA has been a place of healing and renewal because of the generosity and support offered by our community and great friends, like you. It is with pleasure and appreciation that we, in turn, offer to you this report of the successes you have helped the YWCA achieve in the last year.

With thanks,

Cheryl Edwards
Chairperson

Carla Blinkhorn
President/CEO

Sexual Assault Program

The YWCA Sexual Assault Program continues to be considered one of the most comprehensive programs of its kind in the state. Our services include: 24-hour crisis line; the Nurse Examiner Program; crisis counseling; support groups and longer term therapy. The volunteers who generously give of their time to be with victims of sexual assault during their examinations make this program work by providing personal care and support during a horribly traumatic time. During the past fiscal year we provided services to 767 victims of sexual assault and their family members. The YWCA Nurse Examiner Program also continued to fill its lead role in research, contributing to the knowledge base in the relatively new field of forensic nursing and gaining prominent recognition for YWCA projects in several national journals.

Domestic Violence Program

Marking its 25th anniversary in 2002, the YWCA Domestic Crisis Center became a refuge for 650 women and children fleeing domestic violence situations last year. In addition to the nurturing, safe environment available at our emergency shelter, families caught in domestic violence are given access to our community's most comprehensive and progressive domestic violence services which include individual counseling and support groups as well as transitional housing for families leaving the YWCA shelter. Through Project H.E.A.L. (Housing, Employment, Advocacy and Legal Assistance), the YWCA offered supportive services for twenty families in 2002 so that they could better educate and equip themselves as they transition out of the cycle of domestic violence. The YWCA Men Choosing Alternatives to Violence (MCAV) Program also saw a change in 2002. With the support of the 61st District Court, which is now providing meeting space for this critical element to our community's domestic violence response, future MCAV Program groups will be held at the courthouse. This is in order to provide a more sensitive environment at the YWCA for victims, but to still continue offering this vital domestic violence service.

Underscoring the high-quality staff available to those we serve, the YWCA was also pleased to learn that Nancy Twiehaus, Family Advocate at the Domestic Crisis Center for 14 years, was chosen by the City of Grand Rapids to receive a National Community Development Week Award in 2002.

Child Sexual Abuse Treatment Program

Since opening its doors in 1982, the YWCA Child Sexual Abuse Treatment Program has helped approximately 4500 families – 200 families in 2002 alone – to deal with the trauma of incest. With a focus on healing the entire family, not just the victim, the YWCA includes individual, family, marital and group counseling as key elements of the treatment program, as well as, educational and support groups. Current economic conditions have raised serious funding challenges for us as shifting funding sources and funding policies create a somewhat unpredictable environment. Despite this, and an additional 10% increase since 2001 in the number of children now in the foster care system due to incest-related issues, the YWCA continues to accommodate immediate community demand.

Health Fitness Program

The longest thread in the YWCA's 102 year history, the YWCA Health Fitness Program continued to fill its role as an important part of YWCA services in 2002. With a growing emphasis on holistic therapy, clients in the YWCA's Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Child Sexual Abuse Treatment programs were successfully encouraged to take advantage of the services and facilities available in the Health Fitness Center. For many, the YWCA's Health Fitness Center became the place where they could begin building a healthy view of their bodies or enjoy a safe, physical and playful environment. With a core membership of 694 individuals and programming that is structured to serve a highly diverse client base, the YWCA Health Fitness Program served a total of almost 1,500 people, including clients from Park School, Spectrum Rehabilitation, Wildwood, Kendall College, Sister to Sister Breast Cancer Support Group and Senior Neighbors.

Girls Inc. Program

With a second year of successes under its belt, the YWCA Girls Program took on the formal name of the YWCA Girls Inc. Program in order to highlight its status as a licensee of the nationally regarded Girls Inc. curriculum and to distinguish itself from other more traditional girls programs. With a target population of girls, ages 9 to 17, who have either witnessed violence or been the victims of violence themselves, strong evidence is emerging on the pilot program's benefits. In a recent survey of all YWCA Girls Inc. Program participants, more than ninety percent indicated that our program promotes positive values and felt supported by adults in our program. More than eighty percent indicated that our program promotes social competencies and a positive identity. One mother recently commented to YWCA staff that her daughter's teacher was exceptionally pleased with the girl's improvement in her science course, so much so, that the teacher requested further information on the YWCA so she could refer other female students in the hopes of achieving similar results.

Major funding for the pilot program was provided by the Nokomis Foundation, the Grand Rapids Community Foundation, the Slemmons Foundation, the Heart of West Michigan United Way, the Frey Foundation, the Padnos Foundation, and the Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Board. With one year left in the pilot period, efforts are now focused on identifying and securing a stable, long-term funding base.

YWCA Caroline W. Putnam Heritage Society

Established in 2001 and its charter membership secured in 2002, the YWCA Caroline W. Putnam Heritage Society was so named in recognition of Mrs. Putnam's steadfast commitment to the women and girls of our community. Through her generous bequest which was made during the early part of the twentieth century, her legacy has since become the cornerstone of today's YWCA. A full biography of this extraordinary woman is included on the YWCA's website (www.gr-ywca.org). The Putnam Heritage Society recognizes those individuals with similar personal commitments who have graciously made estate gift arrangements to eventually benefit the YWCA and those it serves.

Special thanks is extended to our charter members whose vision and generosity will ensure a bright and secure future for the YWCA. Ethel Ackerson, Deb Bailey, Jackie Bess, Peggy Bishop, Carla Blinkhorn, Dr. M.P. Martin, Maggie McCrystal, Stella Royce, Wendy Stock, Cindy Storer, Jaye VanLenten, Rev. Bunny Voss Ph.D., Sandy Weir, Bridget White and Dick Willobee, and Dolores and Doug White.

Community Events

The YWCA was busy planning several community events in 2002. Three major annual fundraisers -- Circle of Women, Run Jane Run, and Tribute -- provided almost $100,000 in greatly needed revenue for the YWCA while also raising the organization's profile within our community. Similarly, the YWCA coordinated and supported two important events -- Take Back the Night and Domestic Violence Awareness Day -- to raise awareness of the issues of violence against women in our community.
